Chen Yang has had a long association with Queensland Youth Orchestras. He first joined as a violinist in 1975 and was concertmaster of QYS from 1978 to 1980, touring with the orchestra in 1980 to Europe, including the international Festival of Youth Orchestras in Aberdeen, Scotland. Attributing these positive QYO musical experiences as a major influence in choosing music as a career, Chen studied at the Queensland Conservatorium of Music and graduated with distinction in violin performance.

As his first professional undertaking, Chen was the Concertmaster of the Queensland Theatre Orchestra (later renamed the Queensland Philharmonic Orchestra), working under the distinguished Maestro, Georg Tintner. In 1981 Chen joined the Queensland Symphony Orchestra where he played in the first violin section until 1989. Deciding on a change, Chen spent the next two years as musician-in-residence on Dunk Island Holiday Resort, and continued as a freelance musician throughout the early 1990s, performing in show orchestras for many major musical productions at QPAC. Chen is the leader and conductor of The Sinfonia of St Andrews orchestra performing regular concerts in Brisbane. Chen is at present the string teacher and conductor at St Hilda's School, Southport. Chen was conductor of QYO3 from 1983 to 1988 and since 1991 has been the conductor of the Junior String Ensemble.
